

The Bystander Pledge

I will walk with you in the gutter

And fly with you in the clouds.

I will hold your hand in the moonlight

And fend for you in the crowds.

I will not judge, or place pressure

On why or what you do.

My role is just to be present-

To be there only for you.

My Pledge

I will never remain silent when I hear or see anything that could lead to domestic violence in any way.

I will continue to be a decent respectful person that treats others with dignity.

I will continue to speak up for those experiencing violence and coercion from partners and former partners. I will continue to support those survivors and those who support them.

I will bring awareness of domestic violence especially in families where this is considered "normal" and "acceptable."

RoZSI!!!

I will respect my peers and my friends.

I will respect all around me.

I will work in law and government, and in social media advertisement.

I will keep up the education about domestic and family violence in the workplace.

I will spread the word about stopping domestic violence and take action to make the change.

I will take action! In prevention.

I will Respect everyone.

I will support and educate others to speak out.

I will continue to spread the word and speak up!

I will keep fighting and speak up!

I will speak up when I hear someone make derogatory comments against women and girls.

I will continue respecting others the way I want to be treated. DIGNITY AND RESPECT.

I will-Stand up. Speak up

And respect women/children from DV

I will empower friends and family to achieve their goals, not stopping them.

I will STAND UP.

I will always be better.

I will talk to people about DV and where possible support any persons affected by DV.

I will respect emotionally and physically

Domestic violence has to stop. I will support the government to do the right thing against DV.

I will live a life that will demonstrate that we cannot reinforce gender roles.

I will pray for the leaders in government to make legislation stronger for penalties to support those suffering in DV.

Continue to fight for a world where people can live free from threat of domestic, family and sexual violence.

I will pray for a change in government re Domestic Violence.
